Near Gaia or Ribeira quay, we gather the passengers to do the six bridges cruise. In this cruise, you will enjoy not only the magnificent overall view, but also the six bridges that unite Porto and Gaia. As we depart from the quay, you will have the opportunity to observe Ribeira, D. Luís Bridge, Monastery Serra do Pilar, Infante Bridge, D. Maria Pia

Bridge, S. João Bridge and Freixo Bridge. As we get closer to S. João Bridge, we turn back, allowing you to see Oporto, World Heritage. After passing by D. Luís Bridge, we continue in the direction of Arrábida Bridge, so that you can see the mouth of the river Douro and Afurada, the land of the fishermen.

- Guided tour of the Calem wine cellars with wine tasting and "fado" music show

The two major icons of the Portuguese culture gathered in order to present a distinct and pleasant end of afternoon. The program includes a guided visit to the Cellars, followed by Port Wine tasting (White and Special Reserve) and a Fado show, accompanied by Portuguese guitar and featuring male and female performers. Listen to the very Portuguese soul!
